

Economic Impact Payment Online Registration Tool

for those who don't normally file a tax return

The "Non-filers: Enter Payment Info Here" tool is available at IRS.gov.

Who needs to use the tool:

People who don't usually file a tax return, have a Social Security number and are not claimed as a dependent on someone else's return.

People with Lower Income:

This may include single filers who made less than $12,200 and married couples who made less than $24,400 in 2019.

Supplemental Security Income recipients:

These individuals will automatically receive a $1,200 Economic Impact Payment. People in this group have qualifying children under age 17 can use the Non-Filers: Enter Payment Info Here tool to claim an additional $500 per child by May 5, 2020.

Veterans and their beneficiaries who receive benefit payments:

Veterans and their beneficiaries who receive Compensation and Pension (C&P) benefit payments from Veterans Affairs will automatically receive a $1,200 Economic Impact Payment. People in this group who have qualifying children under age 17 can use the Non-Filers: Enter Payment Info Here tool to claim the additional $500 payment per child by May 5, 2020.

How to use the tool:

The process is simple and only takes a few minutes to complete.

- Visit IRS.gov, click on "Non-Filers: Enter Payment Info Here" and follow steps.
- Then provide basic information on the Free File Fillable Form.
- The IRS will use this information to confirm eligibility and then to calculate and send an Economic Impact Payment.

Entering bank or financial account information will allow the IRS to deposit your payment directly in your account. Otherwise, your payment will be mailed to you.

The IRS has two online tools to help millions of individuals with their Economic Impact Payments. The second tool, Get My Payment, will provide people with the status of their payment, including the date their payment is scheduled to be deposited into their bank account or mailed to them.
